

Monarchs in your Garden

Did you know that milkweed is the only plant a monarch butterfly will lay eggs on?

Did you know that Alpine is the nation's first Certified Community Wildlife Habitat?

If you would like to learn about attracting monarch butterflies to your garden, as well as how to certify your garden as a wildlife habitat, please join us for a talk by Carlette Anderson, the Director of Alpine's Community Wildlife Habitat programs.

For further information please email WildlifeHabitats@aol.com.
